

St. Croix EDC Seeks Nominations for Business of the Year

Last year the 2006 Business of the Year award winners were (l to r) Douglas McMillan of McMillan Electric Company, Dr. Jeffrey Cernohous of Interfacial Solutions and Chris Dove of Action Battery Wholesalers

St. Croix Economic Development Corporation (EDC) is accepting nominations for its 2007 Business of the Year awards program.

Categories include emerging business of the year (a start-up business that has operated for five or fewer years); small business of the year (29 or fewer employees); business of the year (30 or more employees).

Nomination guidelines and a nomination form are on line, or can be obtained by contacting the EDC offices at (715) 381-4383. Individuals may nominate a company in any of the categories, or a business may nominate themselves. Completed nominations must be returned to St. Croix EDC by the close of business on Monday, December 3, 2007.

The winners will be announced after the first of the year and the companies will be honored at a banquet on Thursday, February 21, 2008.

The 2006 winners were Interfacial Solutions (emerging), Action Battery Wholesalers (small) and McMillan Electric Company (business of the year).

For more information, contact Jacki Bradham, St. Croix EDC (715) 381-4383.