

EDC Elects Officers and New Directors

New president is a Town of Warren resident; new directors reside in Town of Cylon and Village of Somerset

St. Croix Economic Development Corporation (EDC) held its annual meeting on Tuesday, May 8, 2007.

Town of Warren resident Trudy Popenhagen was elected to a one year term as president. She is a community services manager for Xcel Energy Corporation (Hudson office).

Jeremy Price, a commercial lending officer with Citizens State Bank, was elected first vice president. Price is a resident of North Hudson.

Patti Robertson was elected second vice president. She is a commercial lender with WESTconsin Credit Union (Hudson office) and resides in Roberts.

Dale Jorgenson was elected corporate secretary-treasurer. He resides in River Falls and owns a laser marking company, Riverland Laser, in the community.

Hudson resident Greg Ewig completed his term as president and will continue to serve on the board of directors and executive committee. He is the director of real estate for the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system (St. Paul, MN).

Ann Hall (Town of Cylon) and Ryan Sicard (Somerset) were elected to the EDC board. Hall is financial advisor with Edward Jones Investments and will be opening an office in North Hudson this summer. Sicard is the information technology manager for the Somerset School District.

Several directors to re-elected to the board. They include Annette Rud (New Richmond), Tom Schumacher (Baldwin), Patti Robertson (Roberts), Barb Nemecek (River Falls), Jerry Brown (New Richmond), and Marty Wold (New Richmond).

Pam Donohoe, the Somerset village clerk and economic development director, completed her second term and was presented with a plaque of appreciation.

Trudy Popenhagen

Ann Hall

Ryan Sicard

SCEDC past president Greg Ewig (left) presenting Pam Donohoe (right) with a plaque of appreciation for her years of service.