

St. Croix EDC Announces Legislative Forum at WITC-New Richmond Campus

St. Croix Economic Development Corporation (EDC) will host its second annual legislative forum with St. Croix County's four state legislators (Senator Sheila Harsdorf, Representative John Murtha, Representative-Elect Dean Knudson, and Representative-Elect Erik Severson) on Tuesday, December 14, 2010 from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. at the Cashman Conference Center on the WITC-New Richmond campus (New Richmond, Wisconsin).

Public and private sector members of St. Croix EDC, along with county residents and businesses, are invited to attend and participate. An informal networking session with the legislators runs from 4:30 to 5:00 p.m., followed by a moderated program that includes economic development-related questions and questions from the floor from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m.

"The upcoming legislative session in Madison will be an important one," said William Rubin, executive director of St. Croix EDC. "Issues like jobs, the economy, and the budget deficit are on the minds of individuals and businesses. The legislative forum will be a two-way conversation between the legislators and their constituents."

Sen. Sheila Harsdorf represents Wisconsin's 10th Senate District. She was elected to the Assembly 1988-96, and first elected to the Senate in 2000. She will serve on the 2011-2012 Joint Finance Committee and is the Republican caucus vice chair in the Senate.

On November 2nd, Dr. Erik Severson was elected to the Wisconsin Assembly and will represent the 28th Assembly District.

Rep. John Murtha represents the 29th Assembly District. He was first elected to the Assembly in 2006.

"The upcoming legislative session in Madison will be an important one," said William Rubin, executive director of St. Croix EDC.

Bill Rubin
St. Croix EDC

"Issues like jobs, the economy, and the budget deficit are on the minds of individuals and businesses. The legislative forum will be a two-way conversation between the legislators and their constituents."

On November 2nd, Dean Knudson was elected to the Wisconsin Assembly and will represent the 30th Assembly District. He previously served as Alderperson and Mayor of the City of Hudson.

Attendees are asked to RSVP at (715) 381-4383 or jacki@stcroixedc.com.

Organized in 1993, St. Croix EDC is a private, nonprofit organization that operates as the independent economic development arm of St. Croix County, Wisconsin. As an IRS-designated Business League, the EDC works in conjunction with its Members to improve the business climate within St. Croix County. Reflective activities include marketing and communications, business retention, expansion, recruitment, new business start-ups, and legislative advocacy.